SHARP ADVANCE LATE IN SESSION. RAILS AND INDUSTRIALS SHOW GOOD TONE.

NEW YORK, March 9.—There was less activity in the market during the earlier hours, and some declines attended the opening, while thereafter most of these losses were recovered and some slight improvement recorded. Early selling was of the profit-taking order, followed by some short selling in anticipation of strike spreading, and because there seemed to be no inside pressure in the advancing movement. Many close observers thought that there were signs of a reaction, but they were rather in the minority, and the manner in which the recovery developed gave confirmation to the opposite theory.

While the leading rails, Union Pacific, St. Paul, Southern Pacific, Reading, and a few others moved to slightly higher prices, the feature of the session was the improvement in the equipment stocks, and also in the Cooper and other metal shares. Confirmation of large orders placed and to be placed by railroads for equipment are heard on every hand.

The decision legalizing the 10-cent fare to Coney Island was a boon to Brooklyn Rapid Transit, and started a movement in that stock, giving it nearly a two point advance. The Street rather expects an upward movement in all railroads in the near future, and has dragged in comparison with other securities in the recent up-turn.

The volume of business was rather light, and therein some traders found satisfaction. The earlier declines brought in buying orders, and they advanced prices, but after they were filled, quietness again prevailed.

In the last hour of the morning trading was on a restricted scale.

During the noon hour there was a positive show of strength, and traders followed the leaders with more or less activity all around. In this case the leaders were the old-timers, with Union Pacific in the van, Southern Pacific, Reading, St. Paul, and other favorites following closely.

The best strength was in Union Pacific. The show of strength seemed indifferent shorts, and made them aware of their peril. The advance here was from 159 1/2, where the market held about noon, to 162 1/2, and this gain was made in the noon hour alone. Thereafter, there was some profit-taking, but the market held very strong with but slight reactions.

In the upward movement, Southern Pacific found its high at 120 1/2, and 2 point gain from its opening. St. Paul in like manner moved up a point with the 17 1/2's touched 17 1/2, and apparently held. Great Northern, New York Central, and Northern Pacific were rather slower leaders, but they acted reasonably well.

Industrials. At the opening Copper broke to 82 or 83, but it quickly recovered its loss, and then 3/4 net advance. Smelting broke 1/4, but it also turned firm and scored a full point advance. Lead moved up 1/2, and Cotton Oil point higher. Car Foundry was another strong industrial selling to 69 1/2 from a close Tuesday at 68 1/2.

Steel common broke after the opening to 88 1/2. This was due to a number of profit-taking orders and at the decline the bears covered in such force that they ran the market up on themselves, the recovery being in full with an additional 1/4 of a point, partially lost and again recovered. Steel common will be ex-dividend in a week and the chances are said to be good for a recovery in quick order.
